The moods of a year can be expressed in various ways--the clubs we participate in, our classes honorary awards and our attitude as students. All these moods are present during our four years at Lowell High School--moods and attitudes we will remember for the rest of our life. These are our memories.

One may laugh at this statement, but ask any senior if he or she has had fun during their high school years. They will immediately acknowledge the fact that they have had a blast.. Homecoming, Little Brothers' and Little Sisters' party, Holiday Ball, our plays, concerts, Senior Banquet Junior-Senior Prom, and finally the culmination of our four years--the Senior Graduation!!!

Our years at Lowell High School have had many moods.

The following pages will relate a story, the story of an average day at Lowell High School. This day is not of any specific date, it is the collection of all the days at Lowell.

In this story, we will give you an idea of what it is like to attend school at Lowell. To us, Lowell High School is as much ours as if we owned it personally. This is a feeling which is shared by all who attend our school.

Moods of a Year

This is a view with which a student who looks out of the schools east windows is quite familiar. In the background we see the tennis and basketball courts, and the old baseball grandstand. The grandstand was recently destroyed in a fire which was as mysterious as the famous Chicago one.

Now let us view some of the early risers getting ready for school. Doug seems to delight in getting up early, in fact, it looks like he gets a kick out of it.

Morning has descended upon Lowell. We will, as on the previous days, have to get ready for school. We awaken, reluctant to leave our beds, with the knowledge that we have to go to the salt mines-----School!!!!

It really isn't that bad but, we like to think it is. We tumble out of bed preparing ourselves for the onslaught of another day.

What happened here, I thought you were getting ready for school. Blame it on the alarm clock, just because you didn't set it doesn't matter.

It is almost time for the bell that signals the start of another day. As one can see, we reluctantly troop into the gym, bleary eyed and very discontented. If school could only start an hour later, we would all be wondering if it could be postponed for still another hour. We'll never be satisfied, but, this is the time school does start at Lowell.

Gossip, gossip, gossip, that's all girls seem to do. It looks like Charlotte's juicy secret is going to be told, and will you look at Judy, she's curiosity personified.

We gulp down our breakfast and saying good-bye, board our buses for school. Most of us do ride buses, for this is a rural area; one rich in agriculture and friendship. Some people detest country schools, but we enjoy the amenities of such a place.

Students in our school are acquainted with one another, this is something that can't be said of larger urban schools.

We arrive at school, bright-eyed, ready for another day. Before school we congregate in the gymnasium awaiting the eight o'clock bell.

This is another view of our school, as one can readily see, we have a beautiful high school campus, be it summer or winter.

Trouping to classes we bid a hello to fellow inmates.

First period seems to be second in length to the seventh period only. The day starts with many an arduous task.

Ho-hum, another day, another grade. Why the grim look of determination on the students faces, are they really giving tests today???

Ruth, you're not supposed to look into the camera. This was supposed to be a candid shot.

Okay kids, it's cleanup time. Roger, stop trying to get your face in the picture. Come on girls, I know it takes you an hour to get ready, but you-ou have only five minutes between classes

Oh no, those nasty old people aren't giving T B Shots again.
Would you look at her face---It just tears me to look at her.

By second period our drowsiness has vanished; second period is also the time when we start thinking about our stomachs-----Lunch!!!!!!

"Whoops, " watch out Dave, Kathy's hurrying to get to class. So---o move it.

What we need more of around this school is intelligent, creative, and industrious minds like this.

Silhouetted against a lethergetic sea of faces, our debaters demonstrate the principles of debate.

During third period we often have auditorium programs. These programs are highly diversified, and well-liked by most students.

What's the matter girls, did George say a funny while he was at the podium.

Hey, hey, what's going on here??
Remember you're in school.....

This was a traveling science show, as one can see, the speaker has captured the attention of the entire audience..... This was one of the many interesting auditorium programs we had during the year.

Sympathy, fascination and delight all seem to register their mark on these three girls. Does Danny Fox really evoke all this show of emotion??????

Munch, munch, munch, the Juniors brought their lunch, eat hearty boys, for next year you have to run this joint, a job which is no easy task...

After third period we file to the cafeteria. We have, without a doubt, the best cooks in Lake County. Our lunches are so varied, that no one can say he didn't get what he wanted.

During noon hour we have intramurals and G.A.A.

All right, who's rocking the cafeteria?? Watch the birdie girls.....

Hey Sue, you're not supposed to throw things, ain't you got any smarts????

What happened to those diets girls??
You shouldn't indulge in candy, it'll make you fat.

Watch those seams, that's what you get for eating all that candy.

And now for a "rousing" game of chess?
It is exciting for those who are proficient at it.

Well here's the gym again, don't you kids do anything except sit??

Come on Bob, you can make it with Jack helping you.

Oh no, not another collision???
Better plot another course Joe..

Okay Sherry, what ever you're doing sure looks comfortable..
Sweet dreams.....

Here's day-dreamers haven-- study hall..John looks hard at work, General Business seems to be getting him down.....

When the twelve o'clock bell rings, we unhappily depart for classes again.

Fifth period is a bore; work, work, work-----will it ever end? No, if one wishes to succeed, it will not end. Work to success, is as necessary as oxygen is to life. We don't really mind that much, but we do enjoy gripping.

Sure I'll get to work Mr. Miller--chuckle, chuckle, chuckle.....

Sixth period comes, and all we think of is, "It's only two hours until we go home." What a pleasant thought, one we savor.

Sixth period comes and goes before we have time to think of it.

Sue been giving you a hard time?
It'll all work out Ronnie.....

Let's get that gym decorated, what are you doing sitting with the girls John??? There's not going to be any hanky-panky in this gym!!!!

This is it, three o'clock, time to go home. Home, what a sweet word after a hard day.

That's what we like, a worker right till the end, and the end is near.....

Seventh period comes and we start the countdown; fifth-nine minutes till freedom, then only forty, then thirty and finally, the last five minutes of drudgery-then-----Freedom!!!!!! We happily depart, boarding our buses and cars eager to go.

One-two, Cha Cha Cha?? What gives girls?
This is supposed to be a basketball game,
not a government class.....

Shall we clap, or shall we clap???

It looks like Bruce has got his hands full, live it up King of the Irish.....

As night comes, we descend upon the high school like a horde of locusts for our many activities, play practice, dances, football, and basketball games, and the intraclass tourneys.

Well Don, I thought you and Sherry had broken up, oh that's right, this picture was taken before that happened.

Playing patty-cake at the Y Teens meeting seems to be enjoyed by the participants.

Night-time, and we play!!!

Somebody forgot to tell Mike that we were around, he seems to be engrossed in "academic" pursuits.....

Did you just get out of bed Sandy???
I'd hate to meet you in a dark alley!!

Watch your step Ginny, wouldn't want you to break something or other...

The inter-class tournies sure are a ball, as is quite evident by the expressions on these happy faces. Win or lose, everyone has a blast!!!

Hey, did you guys forget your pants?
Even if it is the tournies, you've got to be decent!!!

The picture turned out quite blurry, but the SENIOR gals won the class championship.

So you think it's funny, how would you like to be in one of those skirts??????

What are you watching
George??? Looks pretty tense.....

Bottoms up!!! Which one is Phil???

Seniors at play, will Larry ever get up on that surf board?????

Junior play, what a laugh...
The Egg and I was well liked by all who saw it.....

So ends our day, one which we will remember for many years to come. We hope you have enjoyed this stroll down
the memory path of Lowell
High School.....

Okay Freshmen, wake up,
look alive even if you aren't.

Looks like a pretty good hand Tonl, Larry's place sure was a pleasant place to spend the day after the prom.

The students are not the only ones who experience various moods throughout a school year. Teachers are human, too! Believe it or not!

The after effects of burning the midnight oil grading tests, the headaches of slow students, of "too much work," of meeting chapter deadlines and of sponsoring student activities, all contribute to a well-rounded, sometimes rather agitated teacher. But then there's the enjoyment of a job well-done, the definite advancement of a slow student, and the rewards of assisting the students in their numerous activities.

Yes, students and teachers alike experience the moods of a year.

The underclassmen at Lowell High School are very active in the different activities. They have participated more than any other underclassmen in the past. The Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior classes, had an exuberant spirit, which was only rivaled by that of the Seniors.

Underclassmen at Lowell High School live a charmed life; they help make up a school of which we are all proud.

The quavering Freshman of today, will soon become the haughty, overbearing Senior of tomorrow. We only hope they will have as much fun in the process as we had. They will wonder, as we now wonder, how and when the new crop of Freshmen will grow up. It seems inconceivable to believe that the Seniors were once Freshmen.

Undergraduates

The "crowning" of the freshmen girls began-for them- a year full of fun and excitement.

Some sophomores pause on their way to class to examine the ring samples from which they must choose.

" A little work never hurt anyone." This proverb is carefully followed by the Seniors during the initiation period.

Both Cathy Alyea and the junior play seem to be shaping up very well.

Juniors

The class of '62 has had a busy year. Most of their time has been spent in planning for their prom. This was not however, the only project in which they engaged. The junior play, and the preparation of a prize-winning homecoming float also occupied much of their time and energy.

The junior class officers; Steven Lindemer, Larry Cunningham, Jeanette Eskridge, and Doug Herbst discuss last minute prom details.

Beige and brown sweaters have been appearing quite frequently around the halls during the past year. They are being worn by the sophomore class. Choosing these sweaters and also their rings have kept the class of '63 quite busy. Along with all these decisions the sophomores have found time to be active in most school functions.

The sophomore class officers; Bob Haberzette, Terry Tuttle, Ruth Ann Gollings, and Midge Herbst, pause in the cafeteria to discuss important class business.

Freshmen

Change is the keynote of a student's first year in high school. Many new experiences await the Freshmen. The first football game, choosing class officers, selecting queen candidates—these are all memory filled "firsts" in the lives of the new class of '64. As their Freshmen year draws to a close they can look forward to three more—each of which will hold as many happy occasions as their first one did.

The freshmen class officers; Thomas Crisler, Myrna Loy, Susan Usher, and Donald McMahon, pause on their way to another day of classes.

Oh, the aches and pains of G.A.A., hard work----- those after hours spent recuperating from a noon's activity. This is just one of the many, many clubs and activities available at Lowell High. Everyone knows the radiance and energy of the Sunshine Club, the dramatic discipline of the Thespians, the august showmanship of the Letterman's Club, the wild ecstasy of the pep club, and the subtle intelligence of the National Honor Society.

We all look forward to participating in these clubs with their many moods of the year.

Activities

Student Council

Cokes, cokes, and more cokes. . . This is a familiar cry from the Student Council who sells cokes to raise money for the service of the school. The council to the best of their ability, tries to encourage students to use their initiative in developing their ideas into substantial plans for the betterment of the school, its students, and their activities.

To add a little excitement to the activities around school, they sponsor Homecoming, with color day and all the other thrilling events in Homecoming week. The Christmas semi-formal is another event that they sponsor.

Members of the Council serve as hall monitors to assist teachers on noon duty. This is, as you can see, a very worthwhile organization.

These students are chatting about how nice everyone looked on dress-up day which is sponsored by the Student Council.

Hurry, Hurry--half-time is nearly here.

We just can't keep this punch bowl filled!!

"Oh no you don't!" Ron says as two little freshmen try to sneak down the hall.

National Honor Society

Officers are: Joe Habertzette, President; Joan Templin, Vice-President; and Donna Richmond, Secretary, Treasurer.

Read'n, riten', and rithmetic . . . It seems this is something students can hardly get away from, but when they become Juniors and seniors, they decide they were pretty lucky to have the opportunity.

The National Honor Society was an organization established at Lowell High in 1960. The society was established to create enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service and to promote leadership and character in an individual.

Tri M

Officers were D. Richmond, Treas; C. Ham, V-Pres.; V. Zacney, Historian; M. Clark, Pres.; and Joyce Gerold, Secretary.

The Modern Music Masters is an organization to help students to have a greater and longer interest in ensemble, orchestral, coral, solo, and band performance. It is also to increase the schools reputation as a music center; as we have all been aware of this year, our band has done very well. A B or better average in music, a C or better in other subjects, or if you have received a gold medal at state contest will make you eligible for membership of the Tri-M.

For those with a flare for DRAMATICS! The National Thesplan Society, Troupe 1691, was organized to promote interests in theatrical activities. Its main goal is to encourage those with dramatic interests and to help improve the individual in his dramatic standards.

Thespians

Saint Patricks Dance was an exciting event when Bruce Milokavic was crowned King of Saint Pat's Dance sponsored by the Thespians.

Officers of the Sunshine Club are Carol Gleason (with that sleepy look), Sec-Treas; Donna Wargo, Vice-President; Jannon Pattee, Corres-Sec; and Joan Templin, President.

Sunshine. . . This club was organized to do just that. To make the sun shine brighter for those who are sick or because of a family tragedy.

The members of this club sell popcorn at all the football and basketball games during the year, and they also sponsor a couple of dances. The profits from these money raising events go for flowers, sending cards, and making the life of others a little "Shinier."

The members are chosen their freshman year and remain members throughout their high school career providing they do all they can to help.

Programs, programs, programs for sale! This is just one of the ways the Letterman's Club make money to buy film for movies of our home games. They also help paid coaches and help exceptional athletes obtain college scholarships.

This club is to maintain and develop a high standard of citizenship and school moral. They also help to maintain a democratic school spirit.

It is indeed, a great honor to the senior athletes who have earned their letterman's jacket. They have had to work hard, practice hard, and play hard. It is also a great honor and privilege to see these boys wearing them. We know they have really earned them. The members of the Letterman's Club of this organization.

The main purpose of G. A. A. is to promote sportsmanship, cooperation, and increase skills. The girls select some members to attend camps and clinics so that they may all profit from what these girls have learned in extra experience.

The Home Ec Club was established for the purpose of stressing the interest of its members in the art of homemaking. The club took a trip to Chicago visiting Carson's for lunch and a style show and later to attend a flower show at the new McCormick Place. Other activities included making stockings for the orphans at Christmas, selling candy, and work with the G. A. A. in putting on the gala-the Mother's Tea.

Watch those cups Pricilla, it looks like they're going to fall.

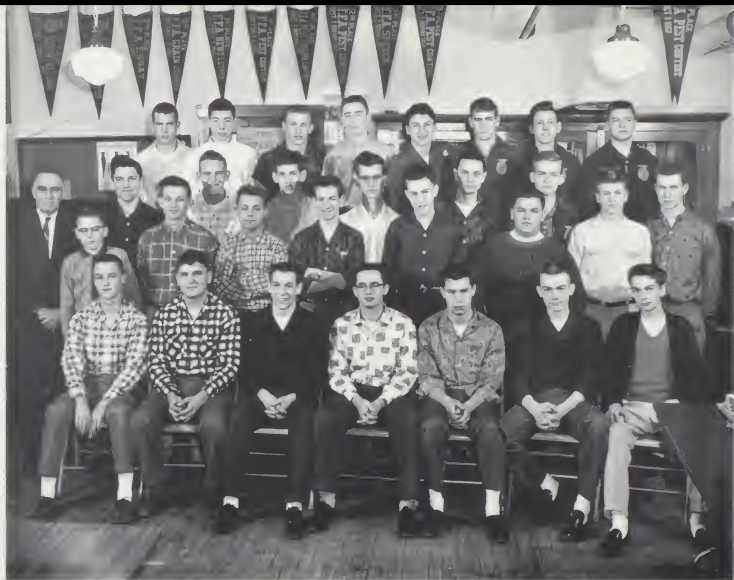

The F. F. A. held there annual initiation dinner in the cafeteria to welcome all the new members.

One of their main projects throughout the year is working on farm land to make their money.

The outstanding purposes of the F.F.A. is to practice brotherhood, honor rural opportunities, responsibility, and develop those qualities which future farmers should have.

Officers of the F. F. A. are from left to right: B. Woodke, L. Kaiser, B. Dahl, R. Dawson, M. Bredemeier, K. McCloud.

Oh how nice everyone looks today. We should have dress up day everyday.

Here the Knights are getting ready to steal Miss VICTORY.

Homecoming

The freshman this year went all out by entering a pretty sharp looking car.

O. K. Devils, lets get our Miss VICTORY back, we'll need her for the big game.

Ah . . . Homecoming! With its excitement of building floats, decorating cars, parading through town . . . and finally, the big game. The evening was filled with surprises for winners of different events; and the most gala affair, especially for the frenzied juniors, the crowning of vivacious Queen Sherrie.

Queen Sherrie beams with a smile as she reigns over the Homecoming dance.

Keith and Donna enjoyed a dance in which all the court and their escorts danced while everyone watched with great admiration at the beauty of the girls and their gowns.

They called it Devil's stew--Kathy and Gloria were the chefs.

The Band played--but the twirlers rode.

Come on Sophomores, we're sure to win the best decorated car.

O.K. Fort Wayne, I'm afraid tonight you're going to be taken down; but may the better team win.

The cheerleaders led the Parade yelling pep cheers to get everyone ready for the big game.

The juniors float for beauty took first place and they well deserved it.

Christmas Formal

We come to the end of a perfect night.

The mothers of the girls who belong to the Home Ec Club and the G.A.A. were entertained very elegantly at the style show and the crowning of Queen Connie at the annual MOTHER'S TEA. The gym was very beautifully decorated in a nice array of spring colors. Some excellent enterainers performed and an informal get together at the refreshment tables concluded the delightful evening.

Prom

Congratulations go to Queen Charlotte and King Fred as Doug crowns them King and Queen of the Prom.

Here the King and Queen talk quietly about how thrilled they are while everyone watches them dance.

This is the event of the year that all juniors and seniors get a chance to dress-up and look their very best. The prom is an all-week-end affair. First comes the main event on Saturday night. The boy comes to the girls door, a little unsure of himself. He nervously hands her the flowers, hoping to be on their way. But he is usually disappointed because Mom and Dad have to take pictures and they have to stop at Aunt Janes house to get her approval. After the pictures and visiting, its time for the dance. Everyone looks so pretty and fresh in their lacey dresses and neat tuxes. After the romantic dancing, its time to go out for dinner. When dinner is over there are usually more parties until the break of dawn. Before starting for the beach, park, or some other place of fun, they try to catch a couple of hours sleep.

The Grand March was the last big event of the evening. It was a little crowded, but that could have been expected because the Prom was a big success and everyone had a wonderful time.

Blow your horn!

Strike up the band!

Introducing the most stupendous, most spectacular fine arts section on earth. Featuring the one and only A Cappella choir, Girls' Glee Club, Lowellian staff, Lowellette staff, and last, but never least, the Lowell High School Band. Honors and awards galore!

Join the chorus and let's go!

Fine Arts

The student directors are going over last minute details before the curtain goes up.

The "Old Lady" explains how hard she has worked through her years.

Alesandro watches Ramona's step-mother vent her pent-up emotions upon a girl she has never liked.

Ramona is heartbroken because she fears Alesandro may take his own life.

Juan Can startles Margareta's mother as she is shelling beans.

Father arrives and blesses Philipe's mother.

Senior Play

These actors are all ready to start dress rehearsal.

Janet Huseman needs to be recognized in more ways than one for her help on getting the tickets and making sure the money came out just right after they were all sold. She took charge of the tickets for the Senior Play, All School Show, and the Junior Play.

"Oh, cut that out, Sandy!" Fred says to Sandy as she tries to smear some make-up on Fred. (All in fun of course!)

As John shouts, "I think its going to fall!" everyone helps hold it up.

Toni Jo, George, and John are finishing up the last minute posters and rehearsing their lines before the big moment comes.

"You ain't nothin' but a hound dog!" Sue Schulte wails out as she imitates ELVIS.

Margaret explains to Doug that he is her little "Honey Bun." Doug tries to let her know in a non-chalant manner that he wants her to be his little "Honey Bun" also.

All School Show

Now I'm a gonna tell you what I'm a gonna do, folks.

"Hurry with that water!" Charlene shouts excitedly to Phillip. "We haven't much time."

Betty's daughters just don't seem to appreciate the wonderful life of farming and the wilderness.

I've been so sick, but that doesn't stop me from getting up at five to get breakfast, milk the cows, gather eggs, feed the chickens and clean the house by eight o'clock.

Oh, oh I'm not presentable yet, quick, gimme that dress. Now don't look!

Junior Play

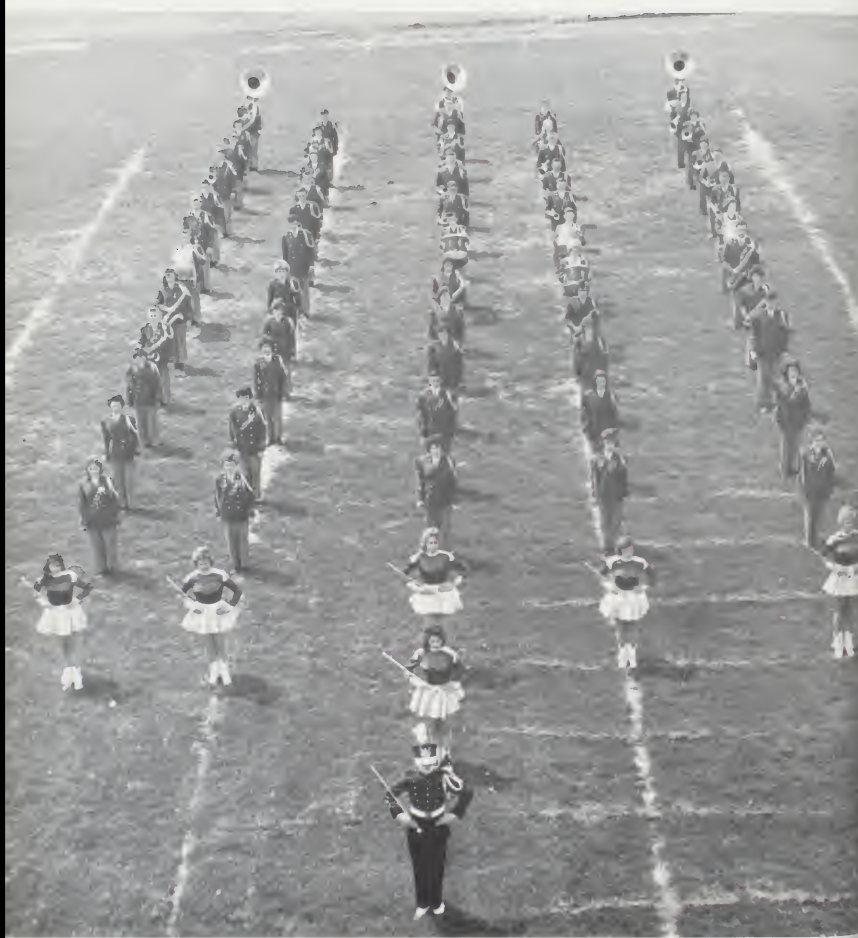

Well la de da, I don't seem to see it that way.

At dress regersal Ann tells Bobby and Pat that she thinks the Junior Play will be a big hit.

Band

The band was in all its glory this year when it took first place in the state. Yes, we have a reason to be very very proud of our band. Mr. Leonard B. Minix has done a great deal with our band and we hope this progress will continue.

Officers were C. Ham, Pres.; P. Hittle, Captain; J. Pattee, Treas.; M. Clark, V-Pres.; and Sec., V. Zacney.

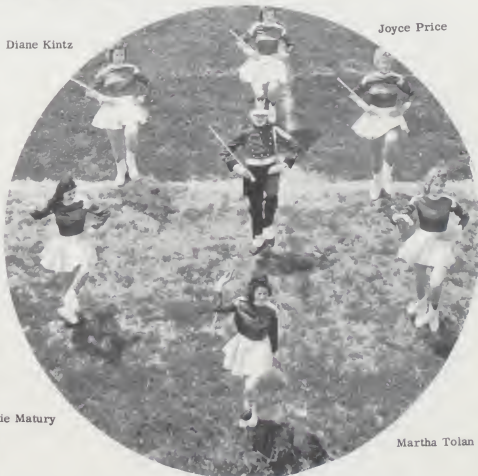

The band is getting ready to play the graduation march for the nervously awaiting Seniors.

Preston and Virginia, along with Charlene and Janon, look through the files for some music. You see, they are the librarians.

Lowellette

The school newspaper is published once every four weeks by a group known as the Lowelllette staff. The paper gives the latest news, gossip, school events, and how the latest flames are doing with their broken hearts. Mr. George Ham is the top editor of the paper.

Linda Thompson and Delight Jutti are making last minute touches on the dummy copy before it goes to press.

Carol gets a little hysterical with laughter when Toni and Carol Drake were showing a few of their ideas about some page layouts. Was it really—that funny Carol?

Lowellian

It seemed as though we were never going to get our yearbook for 1961 finished, but we finally made it. Concentration and a lot of brain power were the ingredients needed by the members to get the writing and pictures they wanted. This year we changed the style of our annual and after many disagreements and misunderstandings, we finally completed our work.

"But George you just don't seem to understand me!" replied Mary Alice as she tries to explain her idea of a layout. Yes, we went through many disagreements, misunderstandings, and you might even say a few of us got up our tempers a couple of times; but we usually ended up by agreeing to the first plan.

"Well Bud, I know I don't have the most beautiful knees, but they don't call me 'bird knees' for nothing. Kay didn't always discuss knees in Lowellian but with George and Bud around a lot of funny topics were talked about.

Two boys--not official members of the staff--gave a great deal of their time to take and print pictures. They are Jay Sheehy and Jeff Henke.

A Cappella

The A Cappella Choir is directed by Mr. Wendel Fredrick. The Choir has an annual Spring concert and sings throughout the year for many different occasions. Even though they were short on a few male voices this year, they sang with just as much beauty.

Spring Concert

The Spring Concert was done a little different his year. The gym was transformed into a small cafe for one night. It was a big success, and even a bigger success was the beautiful songs sung by the Girls Glee Club and the A Capella Choir.

Honors

& Awards

M. Howkinson, T. Vandermark, and S. Starman were given the three English Awards for outstanding work in English throughout their four years of school.

Virginia Zaeny, along with Charles Ham, were given the outstanding band member awards.

Kathy Alyea was voted the best actor of the Junior play for her performance in "The Egg and I."

Brenda Roberts was voted best actor for the Senior play. She was also voted best actor for her performance in the Junior play last year.

Doug Herbst was voted the best actor in the All School Show. He well deserved it for not everyone can perform the way Doug did.

Among all the activities at Lowell High School, sports is one in which we all partake. Sports help to build the minds as well as the body.

The degree of sportsmanship one possesses at the beginning of the season is enlarged as the year progresses. Sportsmanship is practiced by the observers as well as the participants of the game. A person as a human being, is measured by the way he acts; in a game, or in real life. We are proud to say, that at Lowell High School the athletes as well as the observers are good sports.

We had a very gratifying season in basketball, football and cross-country. Our wrestling team was outstanding; Lowell High School has been wrestling champs of the Calumet Conference for the last two years. We have, among all other factors, sportsmanship to thank for this.

Football Coach - Ass't Basketball
Dan Molchan

Paul Schuyler has just completed his eighth year as head basketball coach. He has brought the basketball fortunes up at L. H. S., --having had a winning record for the past two seasons. Mr. Schuyler wound up his third year as Athletic Director, and he has worked with the annual 'Lil' Devil Basketball League program for the past few years.

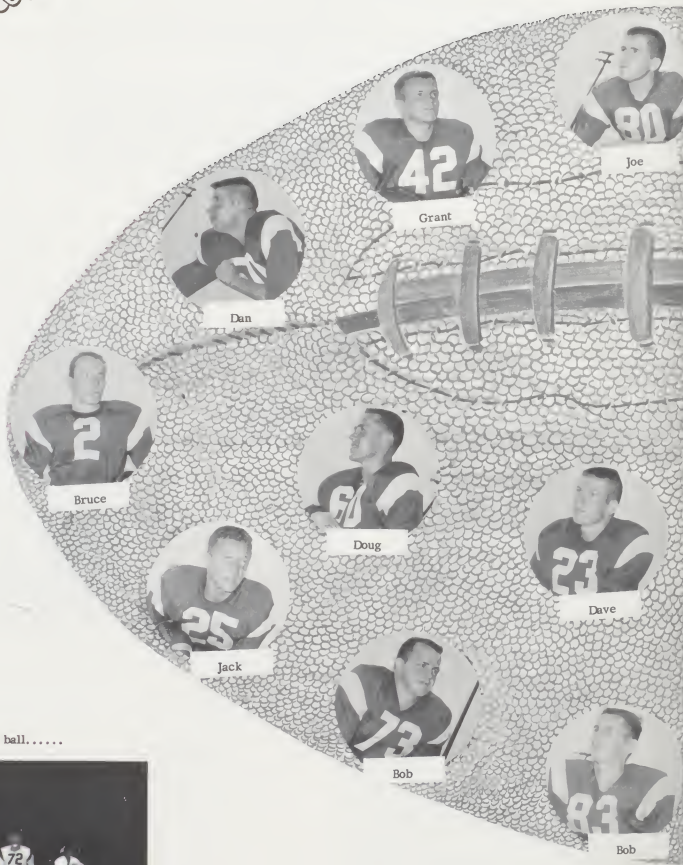

Dan Molchan, our head football coach, started his coaching job at L. H. S. in the fall of 1954. He has accumulated a commendable record with the limited amount of material available. His two ass't coaches are Harold Huff and Keith Perry, who is also head baseball coach and coaches freshman basketball.

John Todd moved up to head wrestling and track coach this past year and is assisted in track by Denny Plantenga. Robert Miller acquired the head golf coaching position this spring.

Football

Our Red Devils, showing excellent maneuvering and strategy, finished with a 5 - 5 - 1 season. One would have had to attended the games to observe how Lowell's stolid defense held the opposition like a stone wall and how their offensive plays outwitted the opponents resulting with many touchdowns. Coach Molchan's planning, by using both passing and running methods gave Lowell outstanding gains in yardage. Many tiring and weary hours were spent after school practicing in all types of weather conditions.

The season began with the Football - O - Rama held at Gilroy Stadium with Lowell downing Calumet 14 - 0. Traveling to Grif-fith for the first conference game of the season, the Devils were defeated by a score of 19 - 7.

The next game, the Devil gridders hosted Gary Edison who defeated the Devils. Time ran out for the Devils as they approached the 10 yard line and lost 12 - 6.

On the road again, the Devils played a strong East Gary team who has never beaten Lowell in their history. A field goal kicked by Tom Milakovic on the 33 yard line in the first quarter proved successful, pushing Lowell ahead 3 - 0. This was the first field goal ever kicked in Mr. Molchan's seven coaching years. A spectacular 86 yard kick off run in the third quarter by Dave Gerner with precision blocking by his teammates tallied the Devils with a touchdown which clinched the game with the score of 10 - 0. Again the Eagles were defeated with an exciting duel between both teams.

This play might have worked if Bruce had the ball instead of Reusze.

This is the end of the line boys--let's break it up.

Too much padding—he lost his head.

The next game the Devils were hosts to a tough Gary Wirt team. Lowell was hindered by numerous injuries during the game. One of the injuries was that of Douglas Herbst, who suffered a concussion. The Devils, even though they had an injurious handicap, fought within a few yards of a touchdown when time ran out. The troopers squeezed by with a score of 13-12.

With the injured back in the line, Fort Wayne Bishop Luers were the victims of the Devils at the Homecoming. Lowell fired up at this yearly event routed the Knights 33-13. The inspired Devils played a tremendous game against a previous undefeated team.

The next game the Devils were host to the Highland, Trojans. The Devils were leading in the fourth quarter 13-7 when Highland started to threaten the game by coming within a few inches of a touchdown. Highland, losing the ball, held the Devils from advancing. With the fourth down drawing near the Devils started using their strategy by getting a safety, which moved Highlands scoring by 2 points. Time ran out and Lowell won 13-9.

Trudging through snow, rain, and mud, the Devils defeated the Portage Indians in a weather delayed game by a score of 7-0 at the Indian field. Still traveling, the Devils met our rival, Crown Point, and were defeated.

Next, the Devils hosted the Merrillville Pirates. The game ended in a 13-13 tie with the traditional gold football being shared. The last game of the season, we hosted the Dyer Indians on a cold day, losing to a strong team.

Aw shucks, I should have brought my firm grip.

Basketball

This years' basketball team had a very impressionable record. They ended the season with an 11 win - 11 lost record; with many of the games lost by only one or two points. The Red Devils showed excellent team work with the winning scores totaling more than the lost scores. With the aid of coach Paul Schuyler, both in practice and during the games, the Devils were able to total 1263 points, averaging 57.4 points a game, with 359 points in freethrows (62.9% freethrows made), and to accumulate 273 offensive and 435 defensive rebounds. Leading the Devils in points was Randy Harkabus followed by Ted Stokes and Jeff Wilk, the nearest competitors. Wilk scored the most free throws. Next year the Devils will have only Randy Harkabus back from the starting 5 but with good teamwork and good backing should compile an even better record.

Hey Gene! This is basketball, not bowling.

The Devils opened their season at home with Chesterton. The Devils, playing a team that had already played three games previously, lost a heart breaker by only 4 points. Fired up over this loss, the Devils met River Forest at home and defeated them as well as the next 3 in line: DeMotte, Morocco, and Hebron all away games.

Still traveling, the Devils met the Indians of Dyer and lost another heartbreaker by only one point the game be- decided in the last few seconds.

Next came one of the bigger moments, the Lake County Tourney held at Griffith. Meeting our famous rival, the Crown Point Bulldogs, the Devils were able to stab the Bulldogs and meet the next challenger, who were the Dyer Indians again. Remembering the earlier loss, the Devils scalped the Indians with a magnificent display of teamwork. The Devils were deprived the championship trophy however, by the Merrillville Pirates who won the exciting game.

The next game the Devils played Chesterton again in the Chesterton Tourney. Losing to Chesterton, the Red Devils met more Indians, only this time from Portage and ended up in third place by beating them.

Playing Coach Schuyler's home town of North Judson, the Devils plucked the feathers of the highly rated Blue Jays by beating them in a very close and exciting game.

The next two games the Devils met East Gary and Highland and both proved disastrous for the Devils, but the second game with Crown Point came out to perfection as we nailed the Bulldogs in the "points for polio" game.

"I've got him, now you get the ball Reese!" says Bruce Milakovic to graceful Jeff Wilk, while the "refs" aren't looking.

Hey! Keith and Larry, Randy needs help.

"Don't put it in orbit, Bruce!"

"The new ballet shot," by Harkabus

Still on the road the Devils traveled to the Civic Center and were defeated by Bishop Noll. Fired up over this loss the Devils then traveled to Portage and again defeated the Indians.

On the home court, we met Gary Edison, which proved to be an exciting game. With no time left on the clock, the Blazers sizzled two free throws through the hoop and the Devils lost a heart breaker by two points.

Traveling to Merrillville, who were on a seven game winning streak, the Devils ironically made the Pirates walk their own plank this time. With one second to go, Gene Fuller passed to Bruce Milakovic, who made the winning basket. Thus the Devils defeated JV coach Dan Molchan's Alma Mater.

Next, the Devils met a tall Gary Wirt team and a powerful Griffith team and were defeated in these meets. In the sectional, the Devils drew Crown Point, meeting for the third time. Three proved a charm for the Bulldogs as they eliminated our Devils.

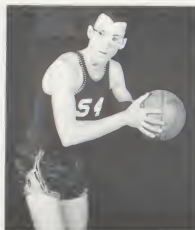

Look behind you boys, I don't see any ball.

All in all, this year's basketball team was highly rated, both by sportscasters and writers. Prospects also look good for next year.

The sportsmanship award, this year, was won by versatile Jeff Wilk, who also made honorable mention on the all conference team. Also receiving honorable mention was Randy Harkabus.

Bruce Milakovic was the recipient of the coveted ALL SPORTS AWARD. An athlete must excel in the sports in which he participates in order to be considered for the award. Bruce participated in football, basketball, and baseball during his high school career.

Which way did it go--which way did it go.

LYNN BANNISTER, Captain

Lowell's wrestling team under the coaching of John Todd completed their most successful campaign -- winning 11, losing 2, and tying 1. The Devil matmen won the Calumet Conference meet and placed 4th in the local sectional meet. In winning the conference meet the matamassed a total of 112 points (second place had 77) and winning seven individual conference championships.

Two boys--Grant Reusze and Charles McMillen--won second place honors in the sectional and were eligible to compete in the regional where each boy won one match and then were eliminated.

The Devils will lose five matmen through graduation, but with seven returning lettermen will be a tough foe for all wrestlers.

Golf

Having lost three members of the golf team by graduation-prospects for a winning combination were not too good. Although we lost more matches than we won, this team accumulated a 6-9 record which is the best yet. Eighteen boys reported for the practice--and among them were eight promising freshmen--giving indication of better golf for L. H. S. in the future. The team playing in the most matches was led by Tom Milakovic and Jack Van Nada--two Junior returning lettermen for next year. Two Sophomores Ken McAllister and Adolph Mueller along with Freshman Ronnie Shipley are the other three letter winners. Our most satisfying victory this year was in beating the Dyer Indians--last year's conference champs. With all of our lettermen returning, new Coach Bob Miller is hoping for that conference championship.

Track

The track team was coached by John Todd, who is at his second year as head track coach. The Devils held many exciting meets this year and were able to compile a record better than that of last season. Although the Devils lost more meets than they won, they were determined to do their best, which makes any team proud. In a quadrangular meet between Lowell, DeMotte, Wheatfield, and Wanatah, the Devils took first place honors defeating the second place team by 23 points. Other meets between Morocco and Hebron also proved to be successful. In the conference meet the Devils took eighth place.

The co-captains were Gene Fuller and Phil Nomanson; and the sportsmanship award was won by Jim Isler. Prospects look good for next year's team, since many underclassmen are participating in track.

Our baseball team, under the managing of new Coach Keith Perry completed their season with 4 won and 9 loss record. Their most notable accomplishment was in beating Griffith-the Conference champs. The Devils were hampered this by lousy weather and the fact that our pitching wasn't too effective... Jack Jackson was the most consistent of our hurlers. Coach Perry received a sweet victory by being able guide his team past his alma mater the Crown Point Bulldogs by a score of 10-7. Jeff Wilk was the recipient of the Sportsmanship Award, and he along with Bruce Milakovic were chosen on the all conference team.

Managers

Jeff Henke - Student Trainer

Managers are the assistant's assistants, who really work hard. There is a lot to do, not only at the games, but at the practices also. At the practices, a "behind the scenes" view would show them chasing footballs, lugging heavy equipment, (heavy to them at least), shining basketballs, and many other things unthinkable by anyone except coaches and players. They usually come home with "dishpan" hands since they wash clothes and - oh yes! sometimes the coaches' keys when they forget to return them. The life of a manager requires some work, but a little work doesn't hurt anyone. The familiar call of ... "manager!" still rings through many a manager's mind; as he does odd jobs for the coaches and personal things for the players. Managers usually do not get as much credit as the team; but in the long run managers enjoy their work.

Cheerleaders

The cheerleaders have quite a task in performing the many duties required of them during our long sports seasons. Many hours of hard work are required to perfect the many yells and movements. They must provide their own transportation to away games, and they foot the bill for most of the uniforms they wear. Our varsity leaders were to a summer cheerleading camp for students from all parts of Indiana.

INTRAMURAL COUNCIL AT PLAY
Malo, Terry Tuttle, Don Kretz, and

The intramural program established by Mr. Schuyler several years ago has become an important and influencing factor in the activities of L.H.S. students. Many students who are deprived the right to compete against boys from other schools obtain recognition by participating in all types of sports such as horseshoes, tennis, archery, basketball, volleyball, dodge ball (the sport all the girls like to watch), ping pong, track, and chess.

Through intramurals, in which leadership is of utmost importance. Each participant should be able to develop a sense of cooperation and a spirit of competition.

Intramural athletics, being held at noon hour both indoors and outside, is a program of games and contests designed for all boys who desire to compete.

Intramurals are played on a competitive basis, with ribbons given to the top four in each activity. Also points are achieved by competing, in which the highest one in each class receives a trophy. The intramural council, now in its second year, plans and copes with any phase of the program.

Every three out of four boys in the school participates in the program with the percentages rising rapidly as the program progresses. All in all, everyone participating agrees; Intramurals is a worthwhile activity.

Gene Fuller, our four year singles
Ping Pong champ, serves to Jay in

The greatest sport at L.H.S. (the girls think so) is the Dodgeball game.

Senior boys - - The interclass tourney Champions

We Seniors are approaching an important milestone in our lives, graduation, with the realization of the responsibilities that lie ahead---college, the service, establishing a life's work, and marriage. We sadly regret the passage of our high school days, but our thoughts will always be tinged with vivid memories of joy, dismay, victory, defeat, ecstasy, and depression.

Yes, we Seniors express unique moods all our own.

Graduates

Officers

Serving their class mates for the last time as officers are President - George Malo; Vice-President - Bruce Milakovic; Secretary - Francis Surchik; and Treasurer Jeff Wilk.

It was a busy year for the Seniors of '61. The banquet and graduation had to be decided and decorating committees chosen.

The selection for the announcements received almost one hundred per cent of the votes and proved to be new, different, and well liked by all.

This year the Big Sister-Little Sister Party was all together different. Instead of lipstick smearing and the Freshmen trying to feed each other marshmellow fluff blindfolded, a style show and skit was given by some of the Senior girls, with refreshments following.

The banquet was another exciting event and one of the last times that the Seniors would all be together.

The arrival of commencement was a night long awaited; and then within a few hours our school days were over.

Preparing our ring emblem for the big night required patience and skill.

Getting chairs in order and the auditorium decorated was a big task, but well done.

That last minute help from a friend sure comes in handy.

Will seven-o'clock ever arrive?

Just a few minutes left, and then the "line up".

Here we attempt to get our "jabbering" done before having to go up on the stage.

That long walk to the auditorium for the main event, seems to never come to an end.

Keeping in step and in time with the music was one of our biggest worries.

What we all had been waiting for - our diplomas.

Here, Mr. Dick hands out the hard-earned awards to Valedictorians Barbara Sullivan and Brenda Roberts and the Salutatorian award to Joan Templin.

And now "adult" life awaits us.....

The young people you see in these pictures are all on their way to successful careers in one of America's basic industries . . . steel. They decided (as we hope you will decide) to let Inland Steel Company help them plan their future.

Some are gaining knowledge and experience in special trades to become journeyman machinists, carpenters or electricians . . . some are concentrating on certain phases of steelmaking by working in the open hearth shops, the cold rolling mills or the galvanizing lines. Still others are working in laboratories building a sound foundation for a future in steel research.

Inland offers the high school graduate an excellent opportunity to further his education. Employees may participate in a variety of on-the-job training programs, or they can continue their formal education by registering for evening courses offered by local Purdue and Indiana University Extension Centers.

Plan now to investigate the unlimited opportunities for you in steel . . . with the midwest's own steel company . . . INLAND STEEL.
